Charles Samuel Addams

Date of Birth: January 7, 1912

Date of Death: September 28th, 1988

The creator of the Addams family and his other eccentric cartoons which were all characterized by a sinister sense of humor. Charles' nickname was the "A Defrocked Ghoul" and earned a surprise visit from Alfred Hitchcock. He was a household name in the pages of The New Yorker Cartoons magazine throughout the 1930s to 1980s. The Addams Family is his most famous creation. Charles Addams died in his car by heart attack in 1988. His wife, Marilyn "Tee" Addams, started the Charles and Tee Addams foundation which oversees Charles' creative genius in 2000.

Summary of the show

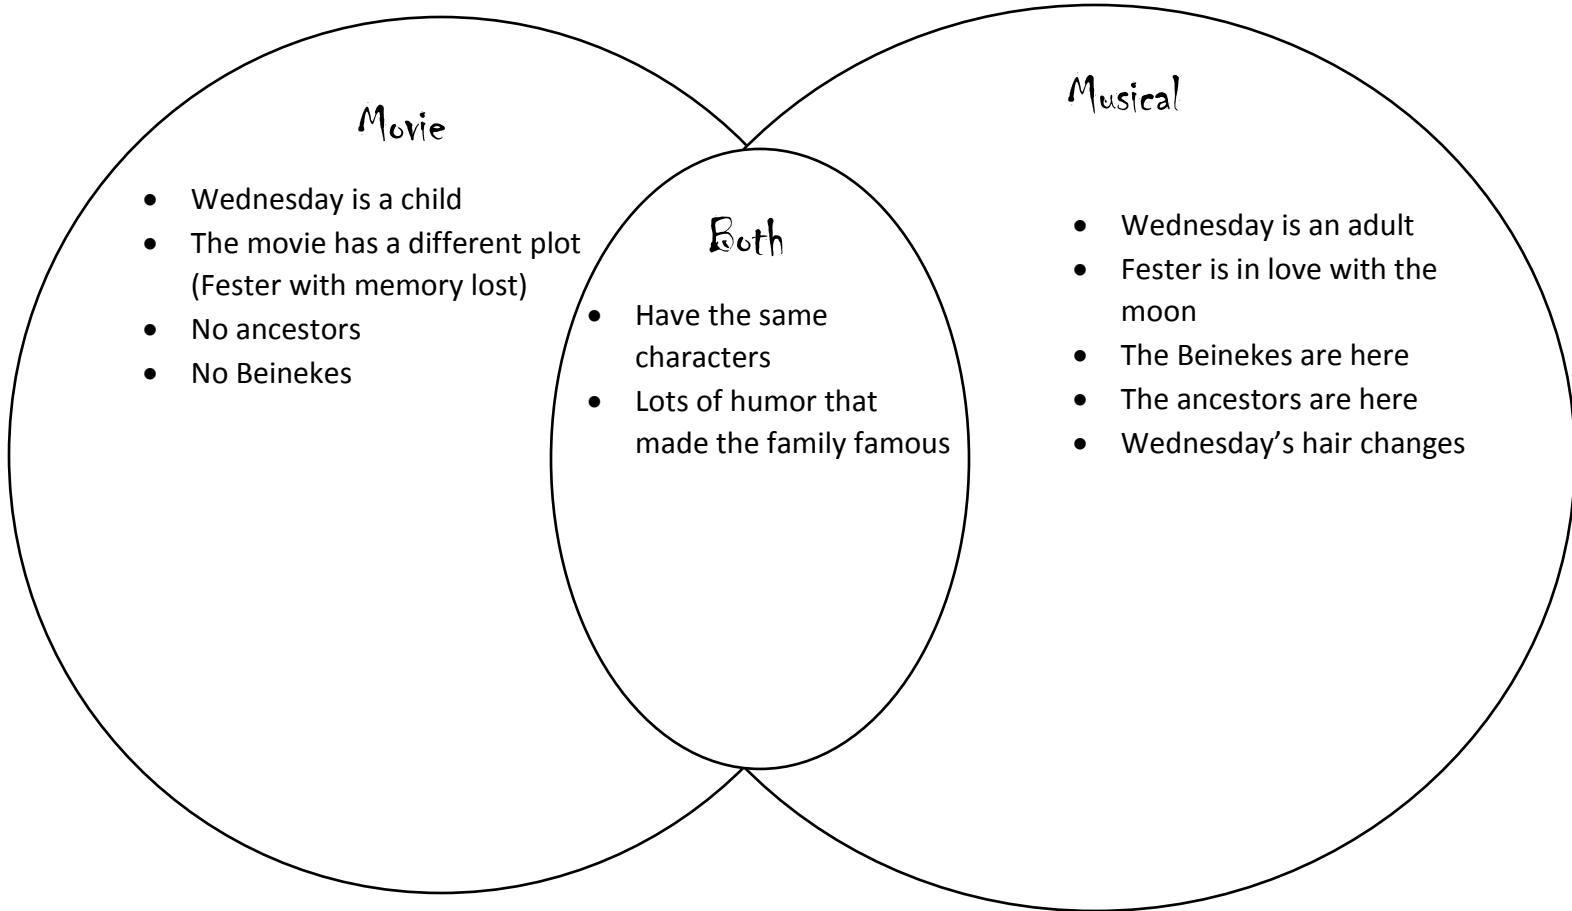

Act one

The Addams family are at the graveyard to meet with their ancestors. Morticia's and Gomez's daughter, Wednesday invites a boy named Lucas Beineke who is her boyfriend. Wednesday tells Gomez that she's getting married to Lucas and doesn't want Morticia to know. Wednesday wants the family to be normal. The Beinekes arrive and meet the family. Dinner is over and they play a game called Full Disclosure which reveals Wednesday and Lucas's marriage making Morticia angry at Gomez who kept a secret.

Act Two

Wednesday wants to run away but Lucas doesn't want too. Morticia kicks Gomez out of the house, Mal and Alice (Lucas' parents) are unhappy with each other. Gomez talks to Wednesday about running away and Lucas comes to get her. They have a test of love as Wednesday shoots an arrow to the apple on Lucas' head. Fester confesses his love to the moon. Mal changes back to his old self making Alice fall in love with him again. Morticia almost leaves but Gomez stops her and they make up. The families are friends and Morticia forgives Wednesday.
